And much much more

Professional Development

First National's Professional Development has employed the services of Well-known and respected Wendy Thomson

When it comes to the real estate industry, Wendy Thomson lives and breathes commercial property. While Wendy is passionate about commercial real estate, her other passion is sharing her extensive industry knowledge and experience. Behind every one of Wendy's training events there is a solid commitment to improving the level of professionalism in the commercial real estate industry, and enabling agents to consistently deliver positive outcomes for their clients.

Respected as one of the leaders in this competitive and specialised field of real estate, Wendy operates a large commercial agency that boasts an extensive and diverse client base, and is dedicated to commercial property sales, development projects, leasing and property management. Over many years, Wendy has developed an impeccable standard in business systems and practices, which she now shares with other professionals through her specially designed industry-focused training events

'Wendy knows her Commercial Real Estate, her years of experience and insights just made my life so much easier, she's worth talking to.'

Hyperlocal Advertising

First National Hyperlocal Online Property Advertising

You most likely would have heard people raving about how programmatic ads have changed the landscape well now First National Real Estate gives its members the opportunity to market into this space with Hyper-Local Online. Programmatic marketing is successful because it's efficient.

WHAT IS IT?

A vendor paid digital local-area marketing solution.

A highly efficient way to run digital display advertising across a local area on mobile, desktop, laptop and tablet.

WHERE ARE MY ADS SHOWN?

Online ads are shown to a relevant audience that is within a specific radius to the property address advertised.

Online ads are shown to the relevant audience no matter where they go while online over the campaign period = 4 weeks. This is possible through data matching capabilities.

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS?

Cost-effective - $199 (plus GST) for 40,000 ads (impressions) targeted across a specific area

Drives awareness of the property listing to prospective local buyers

Drives mass branding for First National to prospective local vendors

Raises awareness of the individual agent and local office

Ads appear in an uncluttered environment not alongside competitors

Drives traffic to First National websites not a 3rd party

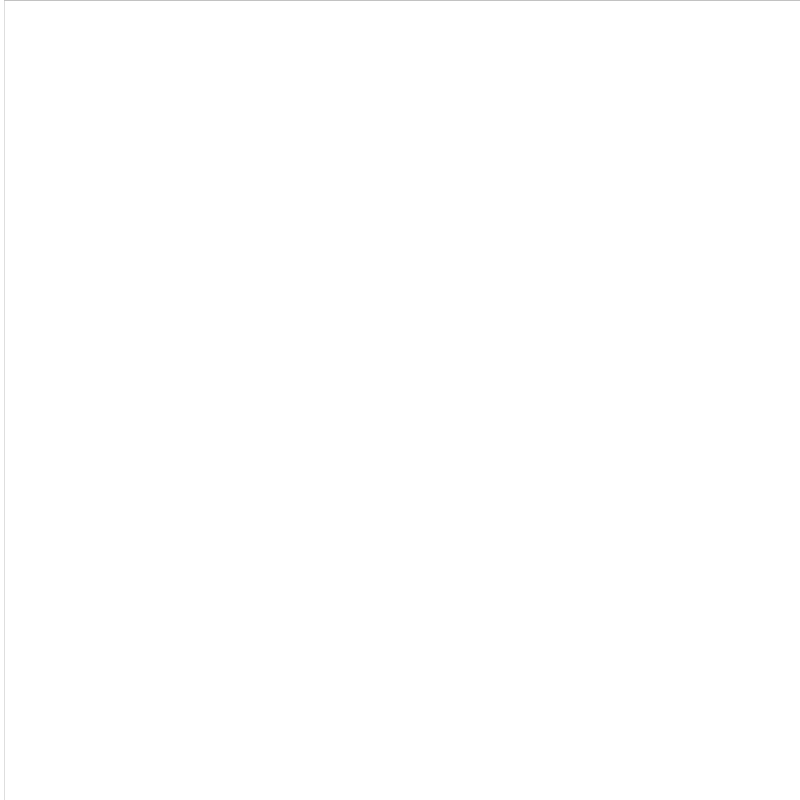

Builds a targeted database of relevant users interested in property

One click campaign set up

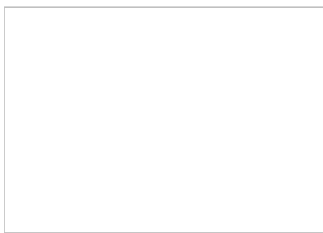

Daily automated reporting
